RULES

USEF Rules to apply, except as specified. Note: BHSA rules will be used in the adjudication of the Western Riding class.

USEF age rule to apply. Participant age determined as of 12-1-07

Participants in this show must be a minimum of 8 years old.

Adult Amateurs must have amateur status, according to USEF rules.

Entries close one class prior to class being entered.

No stallions may be shown in any showmanship class.

No stallions may be shown by youth, except in pleasure classes, as allowed by breed rules (Arabian).

Adult amateurs may show stallions, except in showmanship.

Unruly or dangerous horses will be excused from the arena.

Classes with 4 or less riders may be combined or canceled.

English Classes: Whips (saddle or dressage seat), crops (hunter seat), spurs (unroweled) are optional. USEF- ASTM/SEI Helmet rule will not apply in English equitation classes. However, certified safety helmets may be worn in any class, without prejudice in the placing of the class.

Ropes, reatas, hobbles & chaps are optional. Standard western bits are required for western pleasure & western seat equitation classes, except for horses 5 & under.

Western junior horses 5 & under may show in a smooth snaffle or bosal. Riders showing with a smooth snaffle or bosal must ride with two hands.

Novice horses and/or Novice riders shall not have won 3 first place ribbons at any RMHSA, BHSA, AQHA, or any other breed horse show as of April 20, 2008.

Contestants in Walk/Trot/Jog classes may not enter other riding class(es) which require a lope/canter, however, they may show in showmanship classes.

Copies of papers or registration numbers required for entering classes 32 & 33.

Class 34 – There will be no entry fee. A BHSA medal will be awarded to 1st place, however, no other ribbons will be awarded.

Veterinarian on call.
